

THE WORKING ENVIRONMENT

1. The working environment is not yet fully automated.
2. Quality management not yet implemented.
3. . The role payers are CNS –ATM and MET personnel and the interaction with AIS is up to standard
4. When the raw data is received, the AIS Unit head ensures that the information provided is adequate of required quality, and then it is approves and sends to the briefing office for transmission. If not it is approved it is send back to the originator.
5. The approved information sent to the briefing Office is written in a request format and transmitted to Dakar NOF to be and distributed in a NOTAM format