

Eng. Abdennebi Manar

Director General

Arab Civil Aviation Organization

Biography

Eng. Abdennabi Manar is a Director General of Arab Civil Aviation Organization (ACAO). He is Civil Aviation Engineer from National School of Civil Aviation of Toulouse - France (ENAC),

Prior to his appointment as DG of ACAO, he held several roles including: Acting Director General of Morocco Civil Aviation Authority, Air Navigation Director, Air Traffic Director, Airport Quality, security and Safety Director, Acting as Air transport Director, Morocco representative at ICAO, ACAC Executive Member, member of Air Navigation Team of the Arab Maghreb Union and President of ACAO Air Navigation Committee.

Abstract

- During the 35 years in the civil aviation, Mr. Manar has been achieved a several international experiences such a working as:
- Expert to Arab Civil Aviation Organization
- ICAO Council Member
- Board member of the Planning and Implementation Team for the African and Indian Ocean Region
- Morocco Representative to the Mixed Commission for the Implementation of the Agreement on the Liberalization of Air Transport between Morocco and the European Union
- Morocco Representative in the AEFMP Group
- Board Member of the Panel of Experts of the Global Navigation Satellite System of the International Civil Aviation Organization