

PROFILE

Mr. Peter AMALEBOBA is currently the Legal Advisor of AFCAC. He joined AFCAC in 2015. Prior to joining AFCAC, he had worked with the Ghana Civil Aviation Authority and increasingly held various positions of responsibilities such as, Legal Officer, Secretary to the Air Transport Licensing Authority, Secretary to the Board of Directors, Deputy Director, International Relations and Founding Head of the newly established Economic Regulations Directorate. His career in aviation regulation spans close to twenty-nine (29) uninterrupted years.

Mr. Peter AMALEBOBA also has considerable international experience in the field of civil aviation. He has participated in many Bilateral Air Services Negotiations between Ghana and many countries across the globe. He has participated in all ICAO General Assembly meetings starting from the 32nd General Assembly to date, ICAO Diplomatic conferences on Air Law, Member of the ICAO Secretariat Study Group on Legal Aspects of GNSS, CNS/ATM, chaired the Monitoring and Harmonisation Committee of ECOWAS on the implementation of the Yamoussoukro Decision, Member of ECOWAS- EU Air Services Negotiations Team, in addition to participating in several international Conferences and Seminars on civil aviation.

He holds an Advanced Master of Laws (LLM) Degree in Air and Space Law from the International Institute of Air and Space Law, University of Leiden, The Netherlands as well as Master of Art in Law MA (Law) in International Air Transportation from the Kuban State University, Russian Federation. He is a Professional lawyer and was called to the Ghana Bar as both a Barrister and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Ghana in 1997. He is a Certified and Practising Mediator and Arbitrator listed by the Ghana Labour Commission.

NAME: PETER BILUMSIGE AMALEBOBA

ADDRESS: AFRICAN CIVIL AVIATION COMMISSION,
Aeroporto International Leopold
Sedar Senghor, P.O. Box 8898.

TEL. 00 221 33 859 8800

FAX. 00 221 33 820 7018

EMAIL. pamaleboba@afcac.org