

Introduction to Aircraft Airworthiness

Module contents

Introduction

- Welcome and presentation of the participants .
- Class room / House keeping
- Daily work schedule of the course.
- Course General information
- Course documentation.
- Course objective

Participant Identification

Who are the Instructor?

- Dr. Mohammad Al-Husban
Director of Regulations and Aviation Standards Management
/ Jordan Civil Aviation Regulatory Commission
- X-Positions
- Director Flight Safety Management
- Director Airworthiness standards
- Director flight Safety directorate.
- Chief Airworthiness Section
- Airworthiness inspector

Place and Time

Where: ACAO /Rabat Morocco

What: Introduction to Aircraft Airworthiness

When: From 02/09 to 04/09/2019.

Daily Work Schedule

- Day 1 (02/09/2019)

- Session 0-Introduction
- Session 1- Chicago Convention
- Session 2- Legislation
- Session 3- Functions of the NAA and Implementation of ICAO requirements

Daily Work Schedule

- Day 2 (03/09/2019)

- Session 4- Part 21 Overview
- Session 5- Part 21 Aircraft Certification
- Session 6- Part 21 Maintenance Program
- Session 7- Part M CAMO

Daily Work Schedule

Day 3 (04/09/2019)

- Session 7- Part M CAMO cont...
- Session 8- Part 145 AMO
- Session 9- Part 66 License Engineer
- Session 10- Part 147 MTO

Course Objectives

Upon completion of course you will be able to :

- identify the international and national standards in airworthiness aspects.
- use the rules to legislate any action.
- define the different aspects of legislator issues.
- review and evaluate the various applications, manuals, and requirements for certification, inspections, and auditing.(Aircraft , CAMO, AMO, MTO,...