Egypt was the very hub of all airlines between Africa, Asia and Australia, and some routes to Asia and America, Cairo was therefore a natural choice to host the first ICAO Middle East Regional Air Navigation Meeting (MERAN) 1-18 October 1946 at the Palace Hotel in Heliopolis (the city of the sun)

Cairo Office was established in 20 January 1947 after the MERAN Meeting to organize and serve as a secretariat for the Regional Middle East Meetings

The agreement was signed in 1953 with Egypt to host ICAO MID Regional Office

Women in Aviation

Women have made a significant contribution to aviation since the Wright Brothers' first 12-second flight in 1903.

Women first flight was in 1908, and progressively gained full access to military and commercial cockpits, as well as the Space Shuttle and aerospace technology

Today, Middle Eastern women pilots fly for the airlines, fly in the military and in space, fly air races, command helicopter flights, teach students to fly, maintain jet engines, work as aviation engineers, air traffic controllers, aviation inspectors.

من الارتباط بين أرواء العالم

In 2017, airlines worldwide carried around 4.1 billion passengers. ... If this growth path is achieved by 2036 the AT industry will then contribute 15.5 million in direct jobs and $1.5 trillion of GDP to the world economy

The AT industry is expanding and the future of aviation is a bright one
