▼ Biography

Francisco Vasques-Tenreiro Vega is an independent procedural lawyer with two decades of experience handling criminal and civil matters. With vast expertise in managing legal proceedings, he has intervened in some of the most relevant and mediatic cases of the recent Spanish judicial scene.

Since the fatal accident of Spanair Flight JK5022, a scheduled domestic passenger flight from Madrid-Barajas Airport to Gran Canaria Airport, Spain, that crashed just after take-off from Madrid Airport on 20th August 2008 (of the 172 passengers and crew on board, 154 died and 18 survived), he has dedicated part of his private practice to represent victims and his families at all levels of the Spanish State (Courts of First Instance, Commercial Courts, Provincial Courts, National High Court and Supreme Court). Victims Of Flight JK5022 (AVJK5022) Legal Counselor.

Francisco left Gran Canaria, his natal island, to attend Universidad Pontificia Comillas (ICADE) and the Universidad Autónoma of Madrid (UAM), where he earned his law degree. Madrid Bar Association (ICAM) member since 2003. Father of an only son, born in 2011, Francisco is committed to implement moral considerations in out-of-court negotiations and litigious proceedings, conducting cases before the Spanish civil and criminal courts in an ethical fashion.
