

Gilberto Lopez Meyer

A Mexican Lawyer and Airline Pilot with 9,000 flight hours and more than forty-one years of experience in aviation, an Air Accident Investigator, and Master of International Business Law with various management studies at Mexican and foreign universities.

He currently is the Corporate Senior Vice President of Safety, Security and Compliance of Korean Air, based in Seoul, South Korea. Previously to this position he was the Senior Vice President of Safety and Flight Operations for the International Air Transport Association (IATA) based in Montreal, Canada. Before that, he served twice as General Director of Civil Aviation in Mexico and General Director at Airports and Auxiliary Services (ASA), in charge of the Mexican government's airport network. He was also the General Director of the Mexico City International Airport and twice elected President of the professional organization of Mexican pilots. He was head of the Mexican delegation in multiple international negotiations on aviation, was vice president of the Latin American Civil Aviation Commission, and at ICAO, he chaired the Group on International Aviation and Climate Change (GIACC), as well as the Second High-Level Safety Conference (HLSC).