UAE Role in CAEP

The main benefits of participation in CAEP are:

- 1- CAEP is the premier technical advisory body of ICAO's Council and environmental issues. It proposes standards, recommended practices, and policy options on environmental matters.
- 2- It is extremely important to take part in these discussions at an early stage when standards are being formulated;
- 3- Assure regional presentation in CAEP and its working group along with other Arab State (Egypt and Tunis).
