

MARIANNA SIMEONE

BIOGRAPHY

MARIANNA SIMEONE is a broadcast journalist working in both television and radio and a business manager with vast experience in the areas of international business, public affairs, culture and social services. Marianna began her career in international business as executive director of the Montreal Italian Chamber of Commerce. Under her leadership, the local organization grew to be one of the most performing in the ICC's world network. Today she is a well-known and respected voice in the community. Her contribution to media has been recognized by the Republic of Italy and her journalism work has earned her several prestigious awards.

Marianna has been a board member of the Montreal Port Authority and of the Canadian Museum of Civilization in Ottawa.

Today Marianna heads Ms MEDIA, a communications strategy and PR firm based in Montreal.

22.09.2014