Nancy N. Young

Nancy Young is the Vice President of Environmental Affairs at Airlines for America® (A4A). An environmental attorney with over twenty-five years of experience, Ms. Young directs the A4A environmental sustainability programs, represents the A4A airlines in international negotiations regarding aircraft noise and emissions standards, and provides counsel on other environmental issues of significance. She serves on the Steering Group and as environmental co-lead of the Commercial Aviation Alternative Fuels Initiative® (CAAFI), which is working to hasten the deployment of commercially viable, environmentally preferred alternative jet fuels, and participates in the working groups under the International Civil Aviation Organization's Committee on Aviation Environmental Protection. Young also serves on the Board of the Air Transport Action Group (ATAG) and on the United Nations Secretary-General's High-Level Advisory Group for Sustainable Transport, having been appointed by the Secretary-General in September 2015.

Ms. Young previously was a principal/partner at the law firm of Beveridge & Diamond, P.C., where she served as Co-Chair of the Firm's Climate Change and Waste Management and Recycling practices. She is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum on Air & Space Law and the International Aviation Womens Association. Young holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from The College of William & Mary and a Juris Doctor cum laude from Harvard Law School.
