

John GUNTHER

Mr. Gunther is a graduate in economics, law and aviation law from the Australian National University and McGill University, Canada. Apart from a brief career in the shipping industry, he has spent most of his working life in aviation starting with the Department of Aviation in Australia in 1974. He joined ICAO in 1979 and has held various positions, including Chief of Airport and Route Facility Management, and is currently Chief, Economic Policy Section. He was responsible for the planning, preparation and management of the two ICAO Worldwide Air Transport Conferences in 1994 and 2003. Over the years he has conducted numerous workshops and seminars and has presented at many international conferences and meetings as an ICAO representative.