

Klaus GEIL

Since November 2003, Klaus Geil has been the Administrator in the Air Transport Directorate of the Directorate-General for Energy and Transport (DG TREN) of the European Commission. His main responsibilities relate to bilateral air transport agreements with third countries, notably in Asia-Pacific, and also the allocation of scarce traffic rights between Community carriers on routes between the EU and third countries. Through his career, Mr. Geil has held various positions with Danish Oil and Natural Gas Ltd. (DONG), the Association of the European Natural Gas Industry and the Directorate-General for Energy (DGXVII) of the European Commission in Brussels.
