

Peter BYSOUTH

As Assistant Director, Airport and ATC Charges Asia/Pacific with IATA, Peter is responsible for leading the IATA initiative to reduce Airport and ATC charges in the Asia/Pacific region. Peter spent the first three years of his career as an Airline Commercial Trainee. He then served for three decades in the Australian Army, retiring at the rank of Colonel. Before joining IATA in 2004 he was in Qantas as the Manager Flight Operations Ground Training and Manager Aviation Charges. A regular visitor to Asia during his military, airline and IATA careers, he is now working on partnership agreements for the airline industry, airports and ANS providers. The first such project was the promotion of the Airservices Australia and industry five-year pricing and investment agreement.
