Dakar is the capital and largest city of Senegal. It is located on the Atlantic coast and it is the westernmost city on the African mainland. Its position on the western edge of Africa is an advantageous departure point for trans-Atlantic and European trade; this fact aided its growth into a major regional port.

Local Time: GMT

Electricity: Power supply is 220/240 Volts, 50Hz AC. Language: French is the official language of Senegal. Telephone: Country code is +221

4. ENTRY FORMALITIES

4.1. Please be advised that for participants from non-ECOWAS Member States, visas are obtainable upon arrival at the Blaise Diagne International Airport. Participants may obtain their visas on arrival and/or from Diplomatic Missions of Senegal in their respective countries. Where there are no resident Diplomatic Missions of Senegal, participants could obtain their visas from the nearest Diplomatic Mission of Senegal accredited to their countries.

4.2. For entry into Senegal, travelers are required to present a yellow fever certificate. It is therefore advisable for all participants to have valid yellow fever certificates. The participants should ensure that they have a valid health insurance for the coverage of any medical care during their stay in Senegal.

4.3. Visa: In case of difficulty in getting visa, participants should contact:
