Reflections on Innovation in Aviation Security

Paul Murphy | Principal and Technical Services Leader - Americas

Symposium on Innovation in Aviation Security
ICAO Headquarters, Montréal, Canada, 21–23 October 2014

"Necessity is the mother of innovation."

A person who is in great need of something will find a way to get it or make it happen.

Reflections on Innovation in Aviation Security

"Innovation Starts with Permission. With Purpose.   It takes conviction, collaboration, inspiration and relentless refinement.   It can start with a relaxed conversation and a napkin sketch.   It can start here."

You have permission to innovate.
What will your first move be?
