

Abdulrahman Al Hammadi
Director of Air Safety Department,
CAA, Qatar

Capt. Abdulrahman Al Hammadi is the Director of Air Safety Department at Qatar Civil Aviation Authority who is responsible for the safety of the aviation industry in Qatar. His focus has always been towards a safe, and a secure aviation industry which will always be a strong support system towards the benefit of the country.

Capt. Al Hammadi is a self-motivated individual and also an amenable professional with years of experience under various operators in the field of Aviation Management. Prior to joining the QCAA, he has served as a captain for A320, A330, A340 and A380 which has given him wide exposure and capability in demonstrating leadership skill and efficiency.

Capt. Al Hammadi has been actively serving the aviation community by being a member for many safety and aviation oriented committees and tasks forces in order to provide professional guidance to the Aviation Industry in the state of Qatar.