

Frank Manuhutu
EASA Representative in Singapore
& Southeast Asia (Senior)

Mr. Frank Manuhutu, Dutch national, has been nominated in 1 January 2017 EASA Representative Singapore and Southeast Asia based at the EASA Regional Office in Singapore.

Previously he has managed since March 2006 as Chief Legal Adviser, the Legal Department of the European Aviation Safety Agency in Cologne, Germany. In 2011, he led the EU delegation in the ICAO Safety Information Taskforce. Before that, he has been working for 8 years as Legal Coordinator and Head of the Chief Executive's office at the Joint Aviation Authorities in Hoofddorp, Netherlands and was during this assignment also seconded national expert for the European Commission. During that period he was formally employed by the Dutch Ministry of Transport where he has worked for some years in the legal service of the Directorate-General of Civil Aviation and as Policy officer in the field of international road transport and road infrastructure.

Mr. Manuhutu has started his career in the Dutch Royal Navy, where he worked as lawyer and policy-adviser after having received his law-degree from the Catholic University of Tilburg in the Netherlands.