

Cynthia DOMINIK

Deputy Assistant Chief Counsel for Enforcement, FAA

Ms. Dominik serves as the Deputy Assistant Chief Counsel for Enforcement in the Office of the Chief Counsel in Washington, DC. In her current position, Ms. Dominik manages specified areas of the Agency's enforcement practice, focusing specifically on legal issues concerning voluntary reporting programs and safety information protection. From February 2013 until May 2015, she served as the Assistant Chief Counsel for Field Operations where she was responsible for overseeing the operations of nine Regional Counsel Offices and two Center Counsel Offices.

Ms. Dominik joined the FAA in February 1989 as a staff attorney in the Regulations and Enforcement Division and served in that position until October 1992. From October 1992 until February 2013, Ms. Dominik served as the Manager, Policy and Evaluation in the Enforcement Division, where she was responsible for managing, and providing legal counsel on, the development of national policy and procedures for the FAA's compliance and enforcement program.

Prior to joining the FAA, Ms. Dominik was a staff attorney in the Office of the Chief Counsel, Maritime Administration, U.S. Department of Transportation from August 1987-February 1989. During her career with the U.S. Government, Ms. Dominik has served detail assignments at the White House Counsel's Office and the Transportation Security Administration and as Acting Deputy Director for Audit and Evaluation at the FAA. Ms. Dominik served on the ICAO Safety Information Protection Task Force from May 2011 to January 2013.

Ms. Dominik received her Juris Doctor degree in May 1986 from Louisiana State University and her Bachelor of Science degree in June 1982 from Towson University. Ms. Dominik is a member of the Louisiana, Maryland, and District of Columbia Bars.