

Mathew MYRE

Mr. Myre is the Director of Passport Program Policy at the Department of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. His division is responsible for setting the overall strategic direction for the Passport Program and ensuring linkages with areas that impact secure travel, including identity management, public safety, border management and travel facilitation. His division is also responsible for contributing to the development of international standards through partnerships with key domestic and international stakeholders.

Mr. Myre is the Canadian representative to the ICAO TRIP.