

Patrick Beer

After his Master's degree in Forensic Sciences at the University of Lausanne (Switzerland), Patrick Beer worked for 5 years with the Crime Scene Investigation unit of the Geneva Police Department, where he was also responsible for examining documents under investigation. He has been working since 2002 for the Federal Office of Police and since 2012 heads the Coordination Unit for Identity and Legitimizing Documents.

Patrick Beer is a document expert with a profound knowledge in printing techniques, security elements and electronic storage of data in passports. He has been participating in ICAO working groups since 2005.