

YOLANDA PEREZ BIO

Yolanda Pérez has been member of the Spanish National Police Force since 2010. Before joining the Police Force she carried out her studies in European College of Aeronautics where she became Airline Pilot Transport, working for a Spanish Airline for 4 years.

She is nowadays posted at the Identity Documents Division, State Body in charge of the issuing, management and control of the Spanish Identity Card and Passport. He is responsible for training projects as well as the International Section of the Documentation Division. Currently involved in new technologies, she is working on different initiatives in order to update the way documents are issued in Spain.

She has developed her professional career always linked to Identity and Travel Documents as well as crime investigation.