

Bo-Young Song

Managing Vice President of Passenger Network & Sales Korean Air

Boyoung is Managing Vice President of Passenger Sales and Network of Korean Air. He is responsible for overseeing Korean Air's global network portfolio, and implementing network and sales strategy.

Throughout his career spanning 30 years in Korean Air, Boyoung has held various leadership roles and led Korea Air's overseas business entity in growing markets as Vice President of Regional Headquarters in Southeast Asia and C.I.S, respectively. He joined Korean Air in 1988 and gained extensive experience in passenger business, including general manager of sales in Passenger Sales Office in New York and San Francisco.

Boyoung holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from Korea University in Seoul, Korea.