

Shiumei Lin

Vice President, Public Affairs & Sustainability
Asia Pacific Region, UPS

Shiumei Lin is Vice President for Public Affairs responsible for representing UPS's policy and regulatory interests and driving public-private sector collaboration in the Asia Pacific Region. She is currently President of the Conference of the Asia Pacific Express Carriers (CAPEC), and serves on Boards of Green Freight Asia and the U.S. National Center for APEC (NCAPEC). She is also chair of the US-ASEAN Business Council's Customs & Trade Facilitation Committee, and leads UPS's initiatives to promote Women in trade and e-Commerce, and small business competitiveness.

UPS serves more than 220 countries and territories throughout the world, carrying 20.7 million packages on a daily basis in its network. In the Asia Pacific Region, UPS serves 19 airports operating 183 and 142 intra-Asia and international flights respectively on a weekly basis.