A list of participants who have registered by the first day of your event should be available on its ICAO website page the following day. This list will be revised and updated, as necessary.

Participants should notify the Registration Centre on the main floor of the Conference Centre of any additions or corrections required to the list.

ICAO strongly encourages the evolution toward 100% paperless conferences and events.

Whenever possible, please download the documentation from your event's web page and bring a tablet or laptop with you to consult the working papers and reports you need to reference in the course of your work.

To locate your meeting's web page, please visit www.icao.int/meetings and follow the links to your event and its documentation.
