

Diana Dumitrache

President, Romanian Aeronautical Association

Ms. Dumitrache is a President of the Romanian Aeronautical Association and a Director General of the European Aviation Institute.

Moreover, she is a Chair of the NGAP Strategy and Planning Working Group, is a member of ECAC Network of Training Organizations and a member of ICAO Competency-based Training and Assessment Task Force.

Ms. Dumitrache has experience and expertise in the following fields:

- project management in training and aeronautical fields;
- legal expertise for authorization of Aviation Training Organizations in concordance with the EU law;
- management of Part 147 Training Organizations ;
- developing training standards in concordance with European legislation;
- conceiving and developing unregulated courses in order to raise the standards of aeronautical training;
- facilitating inter-institutional relations both in the public and private sectors by providing consultancy regarding the potential levels of cooperation between institutions in order to assure qualified and competent aviation specialists to sustain the future international air transport system; and
- developing and implementing communication strategies in order to promote aviation industry and to attract the future generation of aviation professionals.