

Yann Renier

Head, Training and Licensing, IATA

Captain Renier is Head of Training & Licensing within the Safety and Flight Operations Division at IATA Headquarters in Montreal.

Among other activities, Captain Renier is responsible for the oversight of the IATA Pilot Training Task Force. He also supports regulatory tasks within ICAO and EASA.

Captain Renier joined IATA in June 2016 after 26 years of commercial air carrier experience, which included both domestic and international operations. Over these 26 years, he has held various positions, among which: Chief Pilot Compliance and Regulatory Affairs and Flight Standard Dept., Line Training Captain, and Type Rating Instructor & Examiner.

Captain Renier is married and father of three children.