

Ananthanarayan Sainarayan

Chief, Aviation Data and Analysis, ICAO

Mr. Sainarayan is the Chief of Aviation Data and Analysis, the Air Transport Bureau of ICAO. He is a Chartered Accountant with degrees in commerce and finance and a Master in Business Administration. His professional experience prior to joining ICAO was in consulting and airline industry where he managed portfolios ranging from finance, Capex, audit, risk management to information systems. At ICAO his experience ranges from business intelligence and analytics, forecasting, environmental economics to impact studies on policies that optimize connectivity and maximize socio-economic benefits from air transport. His current area of focus is on big data for evidence-based decision making.