

IATA OPS Conference 2012

In partnership with ALTA

Dear RASG-PA colleagues,

The International Air Transport Association (IATA) requests the pleasure of your company during the 2012 Ops Conference from April 16-18 at the Windsor Barra Hotel in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Join other prominent industry leaders and key industry decision-makers from around the globe to shape constructive industry solutions on today's most critical industry challenges, including:

- ✎ Airport expansion and redevelopment
- ✎ Regulatory harmonization
- ✎ Fuel and the environment
- ✎ Safety data-sharing
- ✎ Checkpoint of the future
- ✎ Cargo safety

Registration is complimentary but attendance is limited. Please R.S.V.P. by clicking on the following link: <http://iata.org/events/Pages/Ops-Conference-2012.aspx> and entering your personalized registration code, 2609AD.

As always, the IATA team is ready, able and motivated to assist with any of your conference needs; you may reach us at OpsConference@iata.org.

Your participation is much anticipated and we look forward to seeing you at IATA's premier annual aviation event in Rio!

Kind regards,

Peter Cerdá
Regional Director - Safety, Operations & Infrastructure
The Americas & Atlantic
