Bahamas NCMC Challenges

- Empowerment – NCMC should have the authority to instruct and advise all team leads on audit activities and deliverables.
- Resources – Provide the NCMCs with a separate budget and compensation for carrying out the responsibilities.
- OLF System issues, in particular when multiple persons may be signed in at one time (system runs slower and most times information is distorted).
- Timely responses from ICAO when disputes are submitted. For example, after receipt of the initial Draft Final Report, the Bahamas provided comments and had some disputes reference to the graph analysis for some areas, however, Bahamas did not receive any response from ICAO regarding this.

- We have seen where ICAO commenced its review of CAPs submitted, however, it appears only a few areas have been reviewed thus far.
- ICAO Auditors differences of opinions (Headquarters vs Regional Office) on certain issues within Audit areas (e.g. during the last Audit exercise, Bahamas was advised that advice provided by the Regional Office and Technical Cooperation Bureau was not accurate. This situation posed a concern for The Bahamas team as it demonstrated a break down in relationship and communication between ICAO Headquarters and Regional Office).

- ICAO Annex amendments – appears to be mandatory for States to capture a Recommended Practice as a National Standard prior to it becoming an ICAO Standard. This needs to be addressed as Auditors have difference of opinion in relation to amendments. There should be clear and concise instructions provided to the States in capturing RPs.
- ICAO Annex amendments – appear to be mandatory to capture proposed amendments within National Regulations prior to applicability dates which are sometimes 2 to 3 years away.

- Need more Regional Office assistance could be provided to the Audit areas relating to ANS and AGA. Kindly note, the Bahamas is still awaiting reports generated from the Aerodrome Certification Mission involving ICAO, FAA and ACI.
- Communication between the NCLB Team and Bahamas can be improved, for example, during a conference call and an action item is discussed, no follow up or confirmation is received from the NCLB Team on the status of the activity (e.g. Mission visit).
