

The background of the slide features a photograph of the Singapore Aviation Academy (SAA) tower at sunset. The tower is illuminated with blue lights, and its top is lit with a warm yellow glow. The sky is a vibrant mix of orange, red, and purple. In the foreground, there is a blurred view of an airport tarmac with a bright light source, possibly a runway or taxiway light.

Singapore Aviation Academy (SAA)

Priscilla Wong
Head (Business Development/Americas & Europe)
Singapore Aviation Academy

Singapore Aviation Academy - CAAS' Training Arm

Training covers key aviation sectors to meet the needs of Singapore aviation and international community

- Trained 150,000 aviation professionals from over 200 States and Territories
- Ranging across operational, technical, management, leadership and academic programmes
- 140 unique programmes annually, including overseas courses
- Organisation and hosting of international forums for aviation leaders

Developing Human Capital for International Civil Aviation

Training Programmes

- Bringing customised training to your region
- Partnerships for joint development of courses / workshops
- Fellowships available for government officials from Americas

Teaching and Learning Resources

- Sharing of innovative practices, digital learning tools, case studies
- Tapping on expertise, such as subject matter experts, instructors, researchers

SAA Training Methodology

New curriculum

Courses based on competency frameworks - Capability building for next generation of aviation professionals

New methods

Post-COVID learning – Blended learning, hybrid classroom

New learning needs for global aviation leaders post-COVID - Leadership, Sustainability, Resilience

Technology-enabled learning – Virtual Reality, Mobile learning, game-based learning

Thank you