

Module1
Course on Detection of Passengers with Suspicious
Behaviour
(Introduction)

Organisation of the Course

- ▶ Language
- ▶ Schedule, breaks and meals
- ▶ Transportation arrangements and lodging

Organisation of the Course

- ▶ Building layout: administrative offices, rest rooms and coffee break areas
- ▶ Attendance and punctuality
- ▶ Questions and answers in class

Organisation of the Course

- ▶ Reference and guidance material
- ▶ Certificates
- ▶ Attire, social activities, and group picture

List of Modules

1. Introduction to the course
2. Preventive security concepts
3. Passenger and hand luggage screening measures
4. Surveillance and observation techniques

List of Modules

5. Suspicious behaviour detection techniques
6. Passenger and hand luggage screening method
7. Human factors

List of Modules

8. Exercises
9. Closing activities

Training Methodology

- ▶ Lectures
- ▶ Group discussions and exercises
- ▶ Audio visual aids
- ▶ Visit to a security screening checkpoint

Exams

- ▶ Final theoretical exam
- ▶ Questionnaires and revisions
- ▶ Required individual readings

Course Objectives

- ▶ Identify the purpose of security measures concerning passenger and hand luggage screening
- ▶ Recognise the nature of the threat against civil aviation

Course Objectives

- ▶ Apply suspicious passenger behaviour detection techniques
- ▶ Recognise the importance of surveillance and observation during passenger and luggage screening

Course Objectives

- ▶ React properly to a security contingency involving a passenger with a suspicious behaviour or the detection of prohibited or hazardous items or elements

Module Objectives

- ▶ Official opening of the course
- ▶ Explanation of the purpose, structure and methodology of the course
- ▶ Participation in the “knowing-each-other” exercise

Summary of the Module

Following the opening of the course, the participants will be able to:

- Describe the objectives, structure and methodology of the course; and
- Know each other better after participating in a group exercise

End of Module 1

